Form W-8BEN

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Why am I being asked to complete this form?

You are being asked to complete this form as you currently hold US securities, have held US securities with us at some time or may wish to trade on US securities in the future.

All Non US Persons are subject to US tax at a rate of 30% on income they receive from US sources, such as dividends on US securities. If you reside in a country that has a double taxation treaty agreement with the US, you can avail of a reduced rate of tax deducted, generally 15%. This US tax is also charged on sales of US securities for Non US Persons at a rate of 30%. For a person residing in a country, that has a double taxation treaty agreement with the US, the rate of tax is reduced to 0%. Ireland, the United Kingdom and most other EU countries are among the countries that have a double taxation treaty with the US. (Full list available from www.irs.gov)

To avail of this reduced rate of tax, we must ask clients to complete a US tax form (W-8BEN), also known as a 'Certificate of Foreign Status of Beneficial Owner for United States Tax Withholding'. The purpose of the form is to "certify" the country you live in and to confirm you are not resident in the United States.

I have already completed this form. Why am I being asked to complete it again?

You are being asked to complete a new W-8BEN Form, as the form you have previously completed is due to expire this year. A Form W-8BEN provided by a Non US person will remain valid for a period starting on the date the form is signed and ending on the last day of the third succeeding calendar year, unless a change in circumstances makes any information on the form incorrect. For example, a Form W-8BEN signed on September 30, 2002 remains valid through to and including December 31, 2005.

How is the tax on US Dividends paid?

Tax on US dividends (commonly known as dividend withholding tax) is deducted at source; therefore it is paid before you receive the dividend. For example, if you are due a dividend of $10, the amount you will be paid by Davy will be either $7($10 less 30% if you do not have a valid W-8 BEN on file) or $8.50 ($10 less 15% if we do have a valid W-8 BEN on file).

My account is a joint account with another person, do we both need to complete separate forms?

Yes, both account holders must complete and return separate W-8BEN forms. If you require a second form you can either download it from the Useful Forms on website www.davy.ie or contact our Client Records Unit on +353 1 6149028 who will forward one to you.

My account is not an individual or a joint account do I still need to complete a W-8BEN form?

Yes. All holders of US securities, who are Non US persons, are required to complete a W-8BEN form.

I am a US resident, what form should I complete?

Unfortunately, we are unable to operate share dealing accounts for US residents, please contact your Portfolio Manager to discuss this further. If you do not have a Portfolio Manager assigned to you and have any queries in this regard, please contact our Client Records Unit on +353 1 6149028.

What will happen to the form once I complete it and return it to Davy?

We will update your client file to record the information supplied on the W-8BEN form. We will retain the original form here, as we are not required to send a copy to the US or Irish tax authorities. However, we are required to have the forms available for inspection by our auditors.

What will happen if I do not complete and return the W-8BEN form?

In order to satisfy the US tax authorities that we are deducting the correct rate of tax from US dividends we are required to have a form from you. If you do not return a W-8BEN form to us will be required to deduct US tax at the highest rate specified on dividends received on US securities and sales of US securities instructed by you.

Why do I need to complete this form, I have already sent you a certified copy of my passport or driving licence?

Your passport/driving licence is required to satisfy our Financial Regulators anti money laundering regulations to establish the identity of potential clients. Your passport or driving licence do not necessarily provide up to date information about the country you are ordinarily resident in, for example you may hold an Irish passport but live in the United Kingdom.

Explanation of some of the terms used on the W-8BEN Form

US Person: For the purposes of the form, this is someone whose normal place of residence is the United States and is required to file a tax return in the US.

Beneficiary: For this purpose of tax being charged on US dividends, the beneficiary is the person who is entitled to the benefit of the dividend income received. Usually this is the person named on the account, but in some cases accounts are opened for the benefit of others such as Trusts or Corporate Accounts.
