

Davy Financial Advice Service Fees & Charges Schedule (Republic of Ireland)

October 2020

Charges under each of the headings below may apply simultaneously. Note that where transactions are undertaken in other currencies, these fees may be charged in the foreign currency or Euro equivalent.

Davy will not charge you for the investment advice provided. You will be charged within the Davy funds and therefore it is important that you read the Prospectus, Supplement and any relevant documentation for full information on the fees and charges applicable.

Annual Management Charge for Davy funds

Annual Management Charges are included in the Net Asset Value (or NAV). This is an annual charge paid to Davy or a Davy Group Company for managing the investments within the fund. It is usually calculated on a daily basis and varies depending upon the specific fund. Details of these costs are included in the fund documentation, which will also provide information on any other fees that may be charged within the fund. This charge will apply in addition to any other Davy Fees & Charges.	Generally Varies between 0.50% - 2.00%

Third party charges

Bank payment

Bank levied charges for Bank payments vary depending on the credit institution and the currency involved. Details of bank payment charges are generally published on Bank websites. In addition, beneficiary bank charges may be incurred and deducted from the proceeds of receipt by the receiving Bank. Also, see Davy Ancillary Charges below for Davy fees.

Negative Interest Charge

0.65% - 1.00% as may be applied by the relevant third-party credit institution and as may vary from time to time. If we place funds that we hold on your behalf with a credit institution that charges a negative interest rate or similar fee or charge on the client asset deposit account, you will be required to pay the full amount of the negative interest rate or fee (the “Negative Interest Amount”).

This information is provided as a guide only. The third-party credit institution will have discretion over the specific rates that will apply and also over the account types to which the rates apply at any point in time. Davy will provide more specific information in relation to these charges and any subsequent changes to applicable rates and/or account types via its website at www.davy.ie/negativeinterestrates.

Any third party charges which arise will be applied to your account. These charges are outside of our control and may change in the future. To the extent that we have been pre-advised by the third party, we will endeavour to notify you.

Foreign currency transactions (including spot and forward)

When you buy or sell a foreign currency you will pay a transaction charge based on the principal amount of the trade. The transaction charge is calculated by way of a percentage adjustment to:

- i an appropriate benchmark Foreign Exchange reference rate as at the time we accept your order to sell to you or purchase from you the relevant currency (in which case we may make a gain or a loss in the conversion of the foreign currency); or
- ii where we purchase or sell the relevant currency on your behalf in the market, the Foreign Exchange rate applied to the specific purchase or sale

Typically the percentage adjustment will not exceed 1% of the total of the sale or purchase amount. The amount of the actual transaction charge applied will be displayed on your contract note.

Payments from Davy to third parties

We make payments to Intermediaries/Financial Advisers that help to start, conclude or maintain a business relationship between Davy and its clients. We may make initial payments to an Intermediary/Financial Adviser, representing a maximum of 2% of Net New Funds (being the difference between cash and/or assets introduced and withdrawn by clients of the relevant Intermediary/Financial Adviser in each calendar month). We will tell you in advance, or if the details have not been finalised we will provide you with these third party payment details in your annual report.

Payments which can be facilitated by Davy on your instruction

Where you agree to pay your Intermediary/Financial Adviser a fee for services which they provide to you, Davy can arrange for this payment to be made from your portfolio, subject to you providing us with appropriate written instructions. You should ensure that you notify us of such arrangements in writing and satisfy yourself that you are receiving services from your Intermediary/Financial Adviser commensurate with the fees which you are paying. Davy will not accept responsibility for any arrangements made between you and your Intermediary/Financial Adviser or for errors or omissions related to the processing of these payments.
