

Davy Research voted No. 1 Equity Research Team in Ireland in leading European survey

Dublin, 7 February 2017 – Davy Research has been voted the No. 1 Equity Research Team in Ireland in the prestigious Institutional Investor All-Europe Research Team survey. 2017 is the ninth straight year at No. 1 for the Davy Research team which has expanded its coverage beyond Ireland to follow around 120 companies across Europe.

At a sector level, Barry Dixon has for the second year in a row earned a runner-up spot across Europe in Paper & Packaging.

The 32nd annual All-Europe Research Team survey results reflect the opinions of over 2,300 money managers at more than 881 institutions managing an estimated $6 trillion in European equities.

Commenting, Barry Dixon, Davy's Head of Research said: "At Davy we continue to enhance the depth and reach of our coverage universe for the benefit of our corporate and institutional client base. We see this poll of Europe's largest institutional investors as an important benchmark and an endorsement of this strategy."
